Title: VOTE 2016!

Presented By: Marcus Baldwin, Editorial Director

Broadcast: October 31: 6:00 AM; 12:32 PM

Here at KTMB we're urging you to get out and vote! If you're anything like us, then you value someone with a moral compass, someone who's fit to be president. Maybe you got caught up in The Apprentice. After all, who isn't team Synergy? Maybe you love the Casino and Hotels, but you want to leave your wacky stories in Vegas, along with your toupee?

If you wear a hairpiece, maybe you're not an email person? Maybe you feel that having an inbox full of 30,000 emails is a few too many. Perhaps you believe that deleting them could violate some government regulations. In that case, don't forget to vote on November 28th.

If you feel the complete opposite, and think I can't trust someone that votes off a Baldwin brother from Celebrity Apprentice, then vote the other way. After all, don't we deserve a leader that has experience? Who knows, maybe this is the year that Mickey Mouse will get chosen to be our new President? Every election season he receives thousands of votes. Surely we can trust a mouse in the White House, more than we can trust any other candidate. His voice may be high-pitched, but he doesn't lie. And, his only opponent is a cat. Anyway you look at it, get out and vote this 2016 Election season.
